Forecast For Grampian
Issued by Met Office Aberdeen
at 0400 on Wednesday 02 Jun 2021

++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Dry and bright but breezy, low cloud at the coast.

Today:
Sunny skies and warmth still to be found over western Aberdeenshire and Moray. But a cooler feel for many due to brisk southeast winds, coastal haar still possible especially around the Aberdeenshire coast. Maximum temperature 22 deg C (72 deg F).

Tonight:
Low cloud and fog likely to make its way inland during the evening but dry and clear across western parts. Winds easing later in the night. Minimum temperature 5 deg C (41 deg F).

Thursday:
Low cloud and fog will clear back to the coast with some dry and sunny weather likely. More in the way of cloud in the west later. Maximum temperature 20 deg C (68 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
A few showers possible otherwise lots of dry bright weather and light winds. Brighter around the coast too with haar less of a problem.
